ROOSEVELT URGES LIBERALS TO JOIN FOR NATION'S GOOD

President Pledges Continued Efforts in Behalf of Needy and To Relieve Distress of Unemployed and Aged Persons.

EXECUTIVE SPEAKS AT LOS ANGELES

Tremendous Crowd Packs Coliseum To Welcome Nation's Leader on Pacific Coast Vacation.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—(AP)—President Roosevelt made a plea for liberals to unite on a "common ground" of action today in a speech before more than 70,000 persons.

In the state of Dr. F. E. Townsend, author of the $200 a month old age plan, and of Upton Sinclair, sponsor of the "Epic" (and poverty in California) program, the suggestion for unification on a "liberal" program was cheered to the echo.

Perhaps at no time has Mr. Roosevelt received the reception he did today. His words, spoken into a microphone, brought repeated applause. "Our own national program," he said, "owes a great debt" to the "liberal spirit" of California.

Mr. Roosevelt, in ringing words of optimism, declared "we have come through stormy seas into fair weather."

"Patience is receiving its reward. Faith is being justified. Hope is being fulfilled."

Then, pledging continued efforts in behalf of the needy, he said: "The faith of a liberal is profound belief, not only in capacities of individual men and women, but in the effectiveness of people helping one another."

"Liberals . . . must find common ground and a common road—each making some concession as to form and method in order that all may obtain the substance of what all desire."

Tremendous Applause.

The President was greeted at every turn by resounding applause from the throng crowded into the big coliseum where the 1932 Olympic games were held.

"Just so long as the least among us remains hungry or uncared for or unable to find useful work, just so long must it be the task of all government—local, state and federal—to seek reasonable but progressive means to assist the unfortunate."

"I can tell you truthfully," President Roosevelt said, "that in crossing the continent, I have been heartened, more than anything else, by the look on the people's faces."

"It is true that we who are entrusted with the responsibilities of government have labored toward this end, but the greatest factor in the improvement has been the courage of the American people themselves."

"Without your help our labors would have availed far less."

Social Security.

"We have taken many steps to protect the family and the individual against many of the natural vicissitudes of life. We have moved forward to give greater security to the unemployed."

Councilmen Join Constitution Safety Drive

Council members yesterday put their names on the dotted line and pledged themselves to safe and sane driving in the future, as the statewide safety campaign sponsored by The Constitution gained momentum.

BOARD TO APPEAR FOR PROBE TODAY

Reiteration and New Denials of County Extravagance Charge Expected

Reiterated charges of waste and extravagance in the administration of county affairs by the majority faction of the county commission are expected to be heard today by a special grand jury committee as the five members of the county board appear in a group at the request of H. G. King, chairman of the probe committee.

Commissioner George F. Longino, leader of the minority faction, who made the original charges against the controlling bloc which is composed of Chairman C. R. Adams, Edwin F. Johnson and Ed Almand, will in all probability hurl new charges this morning.

Chairman King said the commissioners will be allowed to present their side of the controversy which has caused turmoil in county affairs since the controlling majority took office at the beginning of the year.

Commissioner Johnson, just recovered after a relapse from an operation, will lead the majority group in presenting its arguments that the county budget is not being exceeded and there has been no extravagance at all.

The grand jury chairman said all five commissioners will be asked to say what they wish about county affairs but they will not be allowed to "indulge in personalities."

The meeting today of the commissioners and the nine-man grand jury committee is an important step in the investigation of the county department which has been the subject of charges of which Walter S. Pharr is foremost.

It is expected to aid the committee in reaching a conclusion as to the charges.

GEORGIA P.T.A.'S JOIN SAFETY DRIVE TO CUT ACCIDENTS

Campaign Recommended by Board of Managers; Cobb County Times Will Aid in Pledge Securing.

Safe Driving pledges, signed by Atlanta and Georgia motorists, poured in to the Safety Council of The Constitution yesterday, offering emphatic proof that the people all over the state are waking up to the fearful menace of the constant traffic accidents that are making the streets and highways red-lined avenues of death.

Enlistment of the parent-teacher organizations all over the state was assured when the board of managers of the state P.T.A. meeting in executive session at Griffin, recommended the Safe Driving campaign of The Constitution to the support and approval of every P.T.A. in the state.

While it is against the rules of the organization to officially endorse any movement, the board recommended the campaign in highest terms and said it was only the rule itself which stood in the way of formal endorsement.

As it was every member of the board signed the Safe Driving pledge individually and took blank pledges to their home schools to be distributed through the local P.T.A. groups there.

Fulton P.T.A. Signs.

The Fulton county council of the P.T.A. took similar action at its meeting this week, approximately 80 being present and all signing the pledge and taking stickers to be placed upon their cars.

The campaign was brought to the attention of the P.T.A. organizations through Miss Mitchell, state chairman, who yesterday stated, at her office in the courthouse, that she hoped to secure a signed pledge from every P.T.A. member in the state.

G. W. Bogan, manager of the Atlanta division of the Atlantic Ice & Coal Co., described a special safe-driving campaign this company inaugurated several weeks ago among the drivers of its trucks, numbering approximately 100.

Policeman Follows Trucks.

The company engaged the services of a special supernumerary policeman whose sole duty it is to follow company trucks all over the city on his motorcycle and whenever he sees a company driver violating any of the traffic laws, to make a case against him. Value of the work is shown, Mr. Bogan said, in the fact that there hasn't been a violation or an accident involving any of their drivers since the campaign was started.

Violating of certain rules, including speeding, running red lights, women friends to ride on the trucks, involve instant dismissal.

Mr. Bogan spoke in highest terms of the Constitution campaign conducted by The Constitution and said he would immediately start a move to have every company driver as well as all employees who drive their own cars, to sign the pledge and place the little red stickers on their cars.

Cobb County Times Aids.

The Cobb County Times, published at Marietta, is assisting the Constitution campaign and, beginning with their issue today, will print the pledge regularly in the columns of that paper, as well as keeping a supply of blank pledges and stickers on hand.

'Hell Drivers' and Tractor Races, Parachute Jump at S.E. Fair Today

Lucky Teter and his Hell Drivers, nervy racers who smash autos in head-on collisions, turn speeding machines over at 60 miles an hour and drive them a high pole into the waters of the lake, will be featured today at the Southeastern Fair.

Another record crowd is expected at Lakewood to see Teter, who, in 18 months, has broken 12 ribs and cracked his collar bone twice. The daredevil and his hell drivers will start their performance at 2:30 o'clock. Teter was said yesterday to be in good physical trim, with enough autos to replace those that are damaged or destroyed.

Other features for the day are the tractor races, starring Ab Jenkins, who holds the world's record for tractor on a speedway, and the parachute jump by Happy Jack Clark at 3:30 o'clock. The tractor races will be held at 4 o'clock.

"Alabama" Day.

Alabama will be honored and Miss Valeria Walker, "Miss Alabama," will ascend the Cotton Throne at 10:30 o'clock. Governor Bibb Graves, expected to speak on the program at which tribute will be paid his state, is unable to attend because of official business, it was announced.

All other exhibits and attractions will run continually as they did yesterday, when an invigorating breeze swept the fairgrounds all day and a good-humored crowd flowed along the midway and through the carnival tents of the Royal American Shows.

Hundreds applauded yesterday at the bull dogging, broncho busting, trick riding, fancy roping and other western tricks of the wild and woolly cowboys and cowgirls in California Frank's rodeo. The clowns, prima donnas, adagio dancers, tumblers and whirlwind acrobats who performed in front of the Royal American Shows.

DETROIT, CHICAGO PLAY FIRST GAME IN SERIES TODAY

Baseball's Greatest Show Opens in Detroit; Atlanta Plays Tonight; Constitution Gives It First.

Ethiopian war drums may throb out their messages across the tangled ravines of Africa and Italian planes and tanks may shatter the stillness of desert and jungle in Haile Selassie's kingdom before the week is done, but the interest of the normal American will be centered in baseball parks in Detroit, Chicago, Oklahoma City and Atlanta where the annual fall battles for diamond supremacy will be fought out.

Today more than 48,000 enthusiasts will jam the Detroit park for the opening of the World's Series between the Tigers of the American league, and the Little Bears, of the National. Tonight Oklahoma City will turn out in force for the third Dixie series contest between the Indians, of the Texas league, and the Crackers, of the Southern.

In Detroit two Arkansans will carry the burden of the fight for teams representing Michigan and Illinois. Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe has been nominated by Manager Mickey Cochrane to pitch the opener against Lonnie Warneke, the Chicago ace who closed the regular playing season with seven straight victories in the Cubs' amazing finishing drive from third place to the pennant.

In Oklahoma City tonight Bobby Durham will oppose J. Benson Brillheart, left-handed former Nashville pitcher. Durham won all three of his starts in the play-off in the Southern league and Brillheart won twice in the Texas play-off.

Interest in the American national sport is higher than at any time in the past 25 years, as is evidenced by the shattering of all minor league attendance records by Atlanta and the establishing of new attendance records for many parks in the majors.

As usual, The Constitution will be the first paper with complete reports of the games delivered in the homes of Atlanta. And, as usual, The Constitution will contain the stories by writers recognized as the greatest authorities on the national sport.

At Detroit and at Chicago for extended periods.

Man Admits Setting Fire in Which 10 Died

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Battalion Fire Chief Jerry Falvey tonight announced that Joseph Di Chiri, 31, had confessed in setting for $50 a tenement fire in which 10 persons died Sunday night.

Falvey's statement was made as Assistant State's Attorney Marshall V. Kearney prepared to ask the grand jury for murder indictments against Di Chiri and Frank V. Cing, 45, who Kearney said admitted hiring an arsonist to fire his grocery store on the building for $3,000 insurance.

The fire quickly burned through the ceiling of the store and attacked the living quarters above. Of the 10 persons who died—either from burns or injuries suffered when they leaped from windows—six were children.

Roosevelt Day Celebration Offices Open Today With Cocke in Charge

General Organization of Scores of Groups Now Planning Participation in Celebration To Be Handled Through Central Office by Volunteer Workers.

Headquarters for the Roosevelt Home-coming Celebration will be opened this morning in the 101 building under the direction of Erle Cocke, chairman of the temporary arrangements committee.

The opening of these offices will be the signal for general organization of the scores of groups now planning for the celebration here during Thanksgiving week, a celebration which is expected to bring more than 100,000 people to Atlanta to hear the President.

In announcing the opening of the offices, Mr. Cocke said that all mail connected with the celebration should be sent to the Atlanta headquarters and not to the congressmen and senators. The Atlanta offices will act as a clearing house and if mail is sent to any member of the congressional delegation it will have to be forwarded here.

American Legion Offers Aid.

Mr. Cocke made public a telegram from Chief of Police Ben T. Watkins, of Macon, state department commander of the American Legion, in which he placed the Legion at the disposal of officials in charge of the celebration.

Workers Volunteer.

"Volunteer workers, none of them employed by the federal government, will man the office," Mr. Cocke said yesterday. "The office forces will be on duty day and night if necessary."

O. K. ALLEN NAMED PROPOSED MERGER BOSS OF LOUISIANA

Governor Assumes Political Mantle of Late Senator Huey Pierce Long.

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 1.—(AP)—After heated debate the Louisiana democratic state central committee here today overrode all opposition and decided to keep intact the rigid election laws which the late Senator Huey P. Long set up under the political machine he left in the hands of Governor O. K. Allen, his ally.

Allen was elected chairman of the committee and democratic national committee member succeeding Long, the senator was memorialized by the committee and then the Governor took up the dictatorial gavel where Long left off.

John R. Hunter, of Alexandria, introduced a resolution asking that election commissioners be named to serve at the polls from lists submitted by the candidates for office.

Resolution Voted Down.

But the majority Long-Allen supporters objected on the ground that the Long-dictated laws say the election officials must be appointed by the board of supervisors and the resolution was voted down 80 to 13.

The board of supervisors is appointed by the Governor and anti-administration members claimed that the administration could influence the election thereby.

Administration members resented this argument as reflecting upon the integrity of the board of supervisors and the Governor's administration.

Allen was nominated by Harvey G. Fields, of Farmville, a member of the state public service commission, and elected by an overwhelming majority vote over Miss Marie Breazeale, of Natchitoches, who was nominated by T. Arthur Edwards, of Lake Charles.

State Senator Coleman Lindsey, of Minden, Long-Allen foe, leader in the senate, was elected unanimously a member-at-large on the state committee from the fourth congressional district, succeeding the late senator.

Allen was elected chairman over Miss Breazeale by vote of 67 to 9. The committee then named the Governor democratic national committee member, succeeding Long, by acclamation.

The latter nomination was made by Wade O. Martin, chairman of the Louisiana Public Service Commission, who was nominated by the Louisiana legislature.

Sacrificed Ambition.

When Chairman Allen raised the gavel he told the committee that he was elected chairman of the committee.

ETHIOPIAN WOMEN TO AID HUSBANDS

Four Other Italian Consular Agents Marooned at Dejen on Banks of Nile by Flood Waters.

U. S. TO HEAR IL DUCE OVER RADIO TODAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini, making an address to the Italian people on Wednesday, will be heard in this country via WEA-FNBC radio at 11:30 a. m. Atlanta time.

His talk, in Italian, will be followed by an English translation. It is expected to deal with the current African situation and will come to America from short wave 1220 in Rome.

ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Increasing tension between Italy and Ethiopia led the Italian minister here, Luigi Vinci-Gigliucci, to order today the five Italian consulates in Adowa and Harar provinces evacuated.

Some 20 other Italian consular agents in the interior are trying to reach Addis Ababa, the Sudan or Eritrea. They are forced to travel by horse or mule and because of the boggy roads, are making slow progress.

Floods have marooned four of the agents from Debra Markos on the right bank of the river Nile at Dejen. Ferries are unable to cross the stream.

Foreigners convinced a general Ethiopian mobilization is imminent, expressed belief Emperor Haile Selassie would call it this week-end. Such an action, said the Italian minister, would be only a formality. He asserted all Ethiopian able-bodied men long since have been called to arms.

Ethiopian women leaders have pledged themselves to assume full duty in case of war. Some would go as "storm troops," while others would carry food and munitions and act as nurses.

A mobilization order already is in the hands of all provisional governors and commanders, ready to be posted.

to co-ordinate all of the efforts in connection with the celebration.

The first donation to the celebration came yesterday when George W. Bailey, well-known Jefferson county farmer and Roosevelt supporter, brought a bale of cotton to Atlanta and turned it over to Mr. Cooke. It will be sold shortly and the proceeds used to help defray the expenses of the celebration.

"It will be the aim of our office to work in co-operation with all of the city and county organizations mapping motorades to Atlanta," Mr. Cooke said. "We realize that these 'cades' will present one of our hardest jobs. There never has been a crowd like this in Atlanta and we realize that we must get these people into the city in an orderly fashion and get them out the same way. When you realize that there will be thousands of cars coming through on every highway leading into Atlanta you can visualize the great task in front of us. But we are going to see that everything runs smoothly, if that is possible."

Celebration Plans Extend.

Meanwhile from over the state yesterday came continued evidence of the widespread popularity of the President and his administration, additional cities and counties announcing plans to participate in the homecoming.

In Atlanta Speaker E. D. Rivers, of the Georgia house of representatives, said that he was studying the house roster to decide on the 10 members he will appoint to serve on the general assembly committee authorized by a special meeting of the house here Monday. It is the speaker's plan to name one member from each congressional district.

Representative Marion Allen, of Baldwin county, is expected to be chairman of this committee.

"I have about 75 requests for appointment on the committee," the speaker said. "All of the applicants are strong supporters of the President. The resolution permits the appointment of only 10 and it is with great difficulty that I am making the choices. They probably will be ready for announcement in a day or two."

Talmadge Participation Protested.

Another protest against Governor Talmadge taking part in the celebration came yesterday from Royal Daniel, Quitman editor.

"It is unthinkable and in violation of every sense of propriety and common decency for Governor Talmadge to have any place in the welcome to President Roosevelt, whom he has by innuendo called a thief and insulted by reference to his physical infirmity," Mr. Daniel said.

Dr. C. R. Adams, chairman of the Fulton county commission, yesterday announced that all employees of the county under the jurisdiction of his board would be given a holiday for the Roosevelt homecoming celebration. The chairman said that he would ask other officials, not under the board's jurisdiction, to order a holiday in order that all might see and hear the President.

The Marietta board of education yesterday adopted a resolution sponsored by Judge Newt Morris declaring a public holiday in all of the schools of Marietta.

The Morris resolution follows: "Be it resolved by the board of education of the county of Cobb as follows:

"Whereas, President Franklin D. Roosevelt will deliver an address at Grant field, in the city of Atlanta, during Thanksgiving week; and

"Whereas, we feel that the various officials and teachers of the public schools of the county, and also many pupils attending these schools will be deeply interested in hearing the

MOTORCADE TO ATLANTA

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 1.—(P)—Adopting a resolution calling for party unity in Georgia, the Women's Democratic Club, of Chatham county today announced that it would head a motorcade to Atlanta to greet President Roosevelt upon his visit there.

It appointed Mrs. Julian Hartridge general chairman to arrange the Chatham county motorcade and named Miss Babbie Clair Speth as chairman of reservations, she to arrange with Atlanta authorities for tickets for the large body of Savannahans expected to attend.

The party harmony resolution was the following:

"The Women's Democratic Club of Chatham county recommends that any difference of opinions within the party be amicably adjusted and that we condemn the idea of a so-called third party as a rebellion with the democratic party."

The vote on the resolution was unanimous. Mrs. Louis J. Roos, president, presided at the meeting.

The club heard a talk by Dean E. A. Lowe, of Armstrong Junior College.

LOWER GRADE CITRUS ADOPTED BY FLORIDA

LAKE LAND, Fla., Oct. 1.—(P)—The Florida Citrus Commission today adopted a federal proposal to create a third or lower grade of fruit for marketing purposes.

The commission studied the long outline of requirements for the new standard as offered by the Department of Agriculture, then approved it as written.

Briefly, the regulations prescribe that fruit coming in the lower class must be as juicy and of as good eating quality as that of the other two grades. Fruit not coming up to the standard fixed for the third grade must be branded "culls."

The organization had previously turned over $1,000 to the foundation and the final payment represented the accumulation of contributions from chapters and individuals which have been deposited from time to time in a Philadelphia bank.

MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO FALSE SWEARING

Entering a plea of guilty to false swearing, H. W. Johnson, 50-year-old white man, was sentenced to six months in prison yesterday by Judge James C. Davis in Fulton superior court, in connection with the fake damage claim racket here.

Johnson admitted he conspired with Jess Clackum and Ben C. Williford, Atlanta attorney who is in jail now under purjury indictments, to defraud an insurance company out of money on a fake damage claim. Clackum was convicted of this fraud and sentenced to prison. Williford has not been tried.

When Johnson asked for leniency Judge Davis said the old want leniency because of age the young want it because of their youth, the rich because they have money and the poor because they have not. "Where would law and order be if the court listened to such arguments?" he asked. He sentenced Johnson to six months on two counts.

Better grades of the leaf commanded good prices throughout the day but the inferior grades sold lower than last year. Only a few growers exercised their privilege of rejecting bids.

OLD BELT TOBACCO

MARTS OPEN IN N. C.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Oct. 1.—(P)—North Carolina markets of the old tobacco belt opened today with heavy sales at prices that were reported to be "generally satisfactory." Official figures for the eight warehouses of Winston-Salem were not available, but warehousemen estimated that 1,250,000 pounds were sold for an average price of $21 a hundred.

of the grandstand, as Ceronne's hand furnished a musical background, gave the crowd extraordinary entertainment.

In the tractor races, a Georgia boy, Charlie Howard, of Columbus, was first in his Allis-Chalmers machine, with Stumpy Mitchell, of Ashland, Kan., second and Ab Jenkins, of Salt Lake City, tractor champion, third. The winner sped around the lapped track at rate of 46.42 miles an hour. Jenkins is expected to make his world's record trial this afternoon during the Lucky Teter show.

In the novelty overall race, in which the drivers changed their jumpers between laps, Stumpy Mitchell won after some interesting scrambling in the pits. Chuck Howard was second, and "Violet the Speed" Hunt, third. Speed was not timed for the novelty race.

Judge Waldo DeLoach, state director for the Federal Housing Administration, spoke on the housing program in the Cotton States Exposition building yesterday afternoon. Miss Maxine Beard, "Miss Tennessee Cotton Queen," and her court of beauties, reigned during the better housing program.

Coronation of Queen.
Coronation of the queen for Tennessee Day, Miss Maxine Beard, "Miss Tennessee Cotton Queen," took place in the Cotton States Exposition building at 10 o'clock. Arthur J. Walsh, deputy administrator for the Better Housing Administration, expected to speak, was unable to attend the better housing program because of other duties.

Particular interest was shown by the crowd in the 4-H Club exhibits in the Agricultural building and relics of Georgia history in the Cotton States museum.

The story of the ante-bellum south is told by the objects in the museum building. There are relics from the original Cotton States and International Exposition staged at Piedmont park in 1885. There are crude threshing machines, saw mills, spinning wheels, hand looms and cobblers' benches.

Thousands of articles pertaining to the home, office and farm are on display in the Liberal Arts building. A home, with all the modern devices and appliances, is exhibited, so that there is a veritable "building within a building."

Only Three Arrests.
Among all those who have streamed through the Royal American Shows, the Lakewood gladiators and Goodman's concessions, there have been but three arrests, according to police stationed at the fair grounds. Accidents have been few and slight. Hospital attendants stationed at Lakewood have been called upon to treat no serious injuries. Those apprehended were arrested on charges of drunkenness.

At 10 o'clock this morning the carnival, midway, western frontier village, Cotton States museum and the Hopi Indian village will open. The

Lucky Teter's 'Accident Done on Purpose'

Plantation Club will open at 6:30 o'clock tonight, staging a floor show at 9:40 o'clock with Pete Underwood and his Cotton Pickers' band furnishing the music.

Hamid's Winter Garden revue and Catherine Behner's Metropolitan Sensations will be staged in front of the grandstand at 7:30 o'clock. At 9:30 o'clock there will be another spectacular fireworks display.

"Stunts" Are Real.
Though classed as stunts, Lucky Teter's acts are real and the cars used are regulation stock cars, like thousands of others being driven on the streets of Atlanta each day.

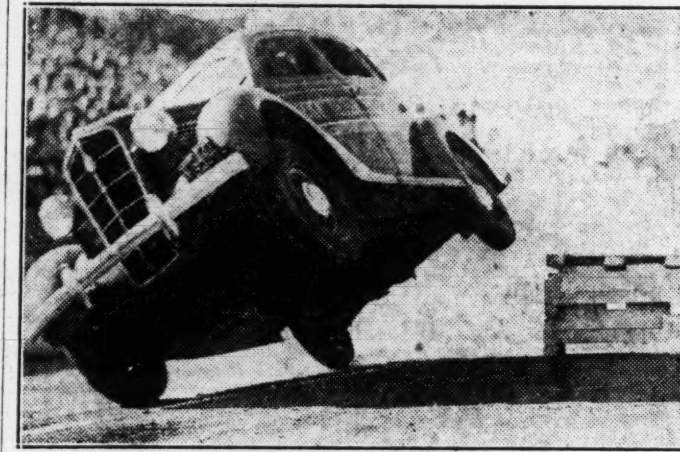

There will be head-on crashes, with Teter remaining at the wheel and keeping his car on the track if possible, ski jumping a various heights triple ski jumping with the ski placed at 100 feet intervals and a crash at the last jump spinning a big sedan around.

In one of the jumps, or dives, the big sedan will have to clear a big truck and will be in the air for a distance of more than 40 feet.

Three Jumps at 60 M. P. H.
Teter will drive a car at a speed of 60 miles an hour and go over three jumps, first on the right, then on the left and ending with a right side jump, in which the car almost turns over and is righted again.

Included in the motorcycle stunts will be a wall crashing at a mile-a-minute speed and jumping the cycle over various obstacles.

Teter's stunts are the most dangerous in automobile driving and it is only through experience that he is able to continue. He has been sent to

This is one of the many dare-devil driving stunts which Lucky Teter and his 13 Hell Drivers will exhibit at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Lakewood park in the afternoon's feature of Alabama and Lucky Teter day. There will be 10 other events, including seven motorcycle stunts, on the program. Teter never lost control of the sedan shown above when this stunt was performed several days ago.

Major Frank Shaw, of Los Angeles, welcomed the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, who were greeted attractively in maroon colored frock.

Parade Into Stadium.
The automobile carrying Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt was driven onto the stadium track at the head of a procession of local dignitaries.

Thousands stood throughout the address. Introducing the chief executive, Mayor Shaw lauded him for his efforts in the Boulder dam project, dedicated to the memory of the late President.

When the party left the coliseum Mr. Roosevelt was cheered repeatedly by thousands of persons packed on the sides of the stadium.

He then went to the University of Southern California, where he was given the degree of doctor of laws, surrounded by students.

Later the party toured the city schools, the University of California at Los Angeles, and the National Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle.

During the afternoon Mrs. Roosevelt addressed a gathering of thousands at Hollywood Bowl at a meeting in behalf of the Community Chest held under the auspices of the California women's committee for the 1935 mobilization for human needs.

The President remained in his private railroad car greeting local dignitaries and preparing his address tomorrow at the California Pacific International Exposition at San Diego.

CIGAR LEAF PROGRAM APPROVED BY WALLACE
WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Secretary Wallace approved today a production adjustment program for cigar leaf tobacco for 1936-39, inclusive, following an investigation and a hearing held here on September 16.

The AAA said the investigation showed the surplus of cigar leaf tobacco has been greatly reduced but has not been eliminated.

Cigar leaf tobacco is grown in the Connecticut valley, Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Georgia and Florida.

The 1936-39 contracts are now being prepared. Any farm that was eligible for a contract in 1935 will be eligible for a new contract. The new contract will be subject to termination at the end of any year. The base acreage under the new program will be the same as used for the old program. Growers will not be required to reduce their plantings or production more than 40 per cent below their base.

Brilliant Idea Works, But So Do Detectives
J. S. McKeeler, negro, who used to be pastor of the St. Marks A. M. E. church, will spend the next two or three years in prison because he had an idea he would help his church and himself out of an embarrassing financial situation.

The preacher lived at 761 Carter street, the state contended yesterday in McKeeler's trial before Judge James C. Davis in Fulton superior court, but the residence heavily mortgaged and the note was due with a big "D."

Now the church had insurance on the dwelling and the preacher had insurance on his furniture in it. And so, one night the house burned down and likewise the furniture. Then the preacher and the church collected.

Yesterday, Rev. McKeeler was convicted of arson and was sentenced to two to three years.

"Show the other fellow a little more courtesy than you expect to receive," is Mr. Lemmon's motto. He points to the importance, in night driving, of never blinding an approaching driver with high beam lights and, when on a country highway, of never parking on the paving except when unavoidable and then never within 1,000 feet of a curve or hilltop.

Full Text of Roosevelt's Address Given at Coliseum in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The text of President Roosevelt's address made at the Memorial coliseum here today follows:

It is a pleasure indeed to come back to California. To the liberal spirit of this state our national program owes a great debt. No state has a finer record in the great task of putting the strong arm of government behind the less fortunate members of society. No state has sought more sincerely to improve the lot of the individual citizen. No state has been more earnest in its desire to expand the ideal of social justice.

Just so long as the least among us remain hungry or uncared for or unable to find useful work, just so long must it be the task of all government, local, state and federal, to seek reasonable but progressive means to assist the unfortunate. The faith of a liberal is profound belief not only in the capacities of individual men and women, but in the effectiveness of people helping one another.

California has many splendid examples of the usefulness of human co-operation.

BRIGHTER FACES SEEN BY ROOSEVELT
As you know, I have not come here today to speak to you formally or even to speak to you about the problems of your national government. I can tell you truthfully, however, that in crossing the country, I have been heartened, more than anything else, by the look on people's faces. In these past years I have sought to understand the trials and the great difficulties under which such a large number of our people labor. I have tried to visualize the insecurities that have beset the lives of millions of our families.

It is true, as shown not by the figures alone, but by the spirit of the great mass of Americans in every part of the country, that we have come through stormy seas into fair weather. Gotham Wakes Quietly Under Silence Program
NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Gotham's dawn came up today like falling feathers.

The city awoke under the muted tones of silence.

It was officially shushed yesterday at 11 p. m.—the inaugural hour of a continuous anti-noise crusade, the city association of drivers and so on until 7 a. m.

Horses pitter-pattered on rubber shoes.

Doormen shushed gay night club visitors.

"We are relying for success on the good sportsmanship of the people of this city," said Mayor F. H. LaGuardia as he announced the campaign over the radio. "If each will do his part, New York will be a better place to live in from now on."

The mayor struck at the "serious harm" that can come from "discordant sounds that could have been avoided."

The cats—the mayor said he was afraid they wouldn't be susceptible to publicity—prowled on the fences and in the alleyways.

The elevated—the mayor said he'd get rid of that as soon as he could—rattled.

But, all considered, the place was pretty quiet.

In the interest of accident prevention and safer conditions on the highways and in co-operation with the Safety Council of The Atlanta Constitution, I am making the following pledge:

1. To drive at moderate speed and on own side of road.
2. Not to pass cars on curves or hills.
3. To stop at stop signs.
4. Not to jump traffic lights.
5. In city traffic to be particularly watchful for pedestrians stepping into the line of traffic from parked cars.
6. Always to give hand signals showing my intention of turning to the left, to the right, or stopping, and not to leave the curb from a parked position without giving a signal.
7. To be fair to other drivers in all respects and to refrain from reckless driving.

Fill out and mail this pledge to the Safety Council of The Atlanta Constitution, inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelope for return of windshield stickers.

PACKARD 120 for 1936

The 1936 Packard 120 Touring Sedan for Five Passengers, One of Seven Attractive Body Styles

TRY TO FIND ITS EQUAL!

No other car can give you all these things this year

We do not believe that any other car can duplicate the new 1936 Packard 120's truly unbelievable riding comfort.

We do not believe any other car of comparable size and weight can accelerate so fast—and with such uncanny quietness and smoothness.

We do not believe that any other car in America will give you more years of service, or remain so free from trouble unless you choose a higher priced Packard.

We do not believe it is possible to find greater operating economy in any other car of comparable weight and power.

We do not believe that more real comfort and luxury have ever been built into a car made to sell for less than $2000.

No other car can give you this for thirty years

"The lines of a Packard never wear out". Can you say as much for any other car?

No. For Packard's unchanging lines have given Packard a distinguished identity that has taken thirty years to achieve. It would take any other car an equal period to achieve it.

No other car can ever give you this

No other car can give you the prestige that Packard stands for. Yet the Packard name is yours without an added premium.

For you can buy a new 1936 Packard 120 almost as easily as you can buy one of the lowest-priced cars. Any Packard dealer will be glad to prove this to you with actual figures.

And the Packard 120's long mechanical life and long style life make it a car it is sensible to buy out of income.

Go to your Packard dealer and inspect the new 1936 Packard 120. You will find that not only has a great car been made greater, but that no other car can satisfy you.

WOOPER, SWEETHEART KILL SELVES TOGETHER

Young Couple, Unable To Break Old Marriages, Take Deadly Poison.

LAKE CHARLES, La., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Distracted because previous marital ties prevented the marriage they desired, a young Okla. couple today took poison and died together on a day coach shortly after leaving Beaumont, Texas.

Clara "Sonny Boy" Seale, 24, who was separated from her wife and two children some months ago and had gone to Beaumont to work, died in agony beside Gladys Johnson, 20-year-old divorcee, who was returning home after a week's visit with her aunt in San Antonio.

Deputy Sheriff Jim Collins, of De-quincy, La., who investigated the case, quoted the conductor as saying he saw the pair drink a liquid, he believed to be ordinary medicine, from paper cups about 20 minutes after the train had left Beaumont. One of the train passengers, Emile Spreng, of Dequincy, told of seeing the couple in convulsive agony as the poison took effect and began paralyzing their internal organs. "The man was screaming and the girl placed her hand over his mouth to quiet him," Spreng said.

Notes the couple left to relatives, authorities said, indicated frustrated love was the motive for their act.

CLEAR, COOL WEATHER WILL CONTINUE TODAY

A cool blast of air spreading southward from the central states will hold Atlanta's temperatures below 75 degrees today, it was forecast yesterday by George W. Mindling, chief of the weather bureau in Atlanta.

No break in the fair weather is in sight, said Mr. Mindling, who is viewing with concern the scarcity of rain in north Georgia for the last three weeks. "The rain in the Atlanta measure since September 11 has been of no value to the farmer," said Mr. Min-

Two Years of Marriage Are Good Ones for Kansas Couple.

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Oct. 1.—(AP)—A 76-year-old wife rested her iron on the ironing board today, brushed back a stray lock of gray hair, and said proudly that her 31-year-old husband, with whom she eloped two years ago, "still treats me as tenderly as a baby."

In the two-story white frame house where Mrs. Lida Curtis does all the housework for Maynard D. Curtis, a printer, she pointed out some of the rules assuring a happy marriage "no matter how old you are."

My husband and I always attend church but that's about all. We never go to the moving picture show. "Keep busy is another good rule. "There should be affection, of course."

the instant the emperor gives the command.

Red Cross Prepares.

As Ethiopia made ready for war, American doctors and nurses prepared to aid the wounded and ill.

Dr. Robert W. Hockman, of Wheaton, Ill., a medical missionary, left for the front with five tons of Ethiopian Red Cross supplies, including operating tables, stretchers and tents.

Dr. Hockman, who was the first foreign physician to volunteer his services to Emperor Haile Selassie, was accompanied by Dr. Isakia Baren, Ethiopian husband of the daughter of the president of Howard University, Washington, and 100 native assistants.

The Red Cross band around the Ethiopian mission excited the intense curiosity of tribesmen, who were puzzled as to the meaning of the insignia.

Dr. T. A. Lambie, field director of the Ethiopian mission, is mostly organizing the Red Cross. Dr. Esther Bergman and Dr. Tesla Nicola, both of Los Angeles, and other missionary doctors are ready to convert their hospitals into institutions for war wounded.

American women have volunteered their services in making bandages and splints.

Many to Die in Desert.

Physicians said in the event of war untold numbers of Ethiopians would be prepared to die where they fall because of the almost entire lack of any medical service. Other disabled may be eaten alive by hyenas and jackals at night, they said, since there will be no means of moving them.

Foreigners in Addis Ababa seem to fear air raids and gas attacks the most. Except for a few anti-aircraft guns, the city is unprepared for such attacks. Only a few Americans here are equipped with gas masks.

An enterprising German merchant recently arrived with a lot of gas masks and is selling them at $40 each.

In the event of an air raid it is likely most Americans will seek refuge in the British legation, which is on a full war-time footing, equipped with subterranean dugouts, or the German legation, which possesses bombproof shelters.

The American legation, which is the most exposed of all, has only six native guards against Britain's 135 trained Indians, and France's 180 seasoned white troops. The legation would be utterly defenseless in case of hostilities, having no bombproof shelters, wireless equipment, anti-gas apparatus or accommodations for refugees.

The British, French and Germans have airplanes ready to take out members of the legation staffs and nationals in the event of an air raid. But Americans have nothing of this kind. They cannot even depend upon the railroad, which the Italians undoubtedly will cut. There are still about 140 Americans in Ethiopia.

GENEVA MARKS TIME.

LISTENS FOR WAR GUNS

GENEVA, Oct. 1.—(P)—The League of Nations observed the 11th anniversary of its protocol for the pacific settlement of international disputes—and listened anxiously for the possible opening guns in Africa.

The protocol outlines various methods by which a dispute between two states could be throttled by League action before it reaches a military stage.

What worried League statesmen, however, was the possibility of an Italo-Ethiopian clash—already looked upon as almost inevitable—developing into something far worse than a war between two states.

Activity itself in Geneva was almost at a standstill, as all eyes watched Rome, Addis Ababa, Paris and London. New attacks in the Italian press on Great Britain discouraged those who had hoped Italo-British tension was lessening. also came as an unpleasant reminder of the grave stresses and strains of the European continent itself.

Reported Franco-British conversations as to naval co-operation in the Mediterranean and persistent, though repeatedly denied, rumors of a German-Polish-Hungarian air pact were seen as additional indications of how vast a circumference of complications is radiating out of a "more colonial" controversy in northeast Africa.

In view of this widespread nervousness among nations, League officials are examining the question of possible sanctions against Italy in case Premier Mussolini defies the recommendations the League council is now making. They are more than ever deeply impressed with the difficulty for a practical application of such sanctions.

The question of what kind of sanctions and how and by whom they would be applied is an exceedingly delicate one.

The League secretariat is drafting an historical account of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute, which will be submitted to the council, now sitting as a committee of 15, Thursday. A subcommittee of three also will submit a report then on the feasibility of a League air patrol of the African trouble zone. It was believed it probably would advise the council to drop the idea.

A German source disclosed that Germany would leave the League officially October 21, if no agreement becomes effective. Two years' notice is required.

GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE SIDE-STEP PLEDGES

PARIS, Oct. 1.—(P)—Negotiations between France and Great Britain for a mutual defense agreement inspired by complications of the Italo-Ethiopian crisis, today found both powers side-stepping specific pledges.

France, these officials explained, is unwilling to go any further for Britain in the event of Italian attack on Ethiopia. The official French position is that it expects the London government to go in case of an air attack on France by Germany. At the same time, France authorized immediate military measures. The air force was unexpectedly ordered to begin maneuvers tomorrow in the Lorraine and Champagne sectors, near the German frontier.

LABOR PARTY WRANGLES OVER ITALIAN SANCTIONS

BRIGHTON, England, Oct. 1.—(P)—The question of sanctions against Premier Mussolini in the event of an Italo-Ethiopian war today led to violent attacks and counter-attacks between national leaders in the first session of the British labor party convention.

The bitter debate in the party's history was climaxed by George Lansbury's reaffirmation of his offer to quit as the party leader in the house of commons. He called his position "intolerable."

Although the vote to be taken tomorrow is expected to show the party overwhelmingly in favor of using sanctions against Italy, it is necessary, Lansbury may not be required to quit, despite his expressed pacifist convictions.

The League secretariat is drafting an historical account of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute, which will be submitted to the council, now sitting as a committee of 15, Thursday. PAINT COMPANY OPENS NEW PEACHTREE STORE

Peachtree Paint and Roofing Company Now Located in Modernistic Home.

The Peachtree Paint & Roofing Company, Atlanta's newest paint and roofing firm, is now located in its new and modernistic establishment at 233 Peachtree street.

The store is remaining open every night this week until 9 o'clock in celebration of the opening of the new headquarters.

A novel feature of the store is that in its decoration it embodies actual examples of many of the latest and most advanced ideas in home and office modernization and the decorative finishing of interior floors and walls, as well as sections of roofs showing exactly how designs, colors and materials appear in actual use.

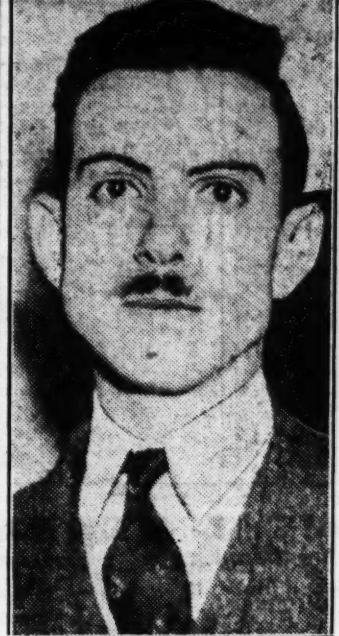

"It is easy to show a prospect a paint color card, or a sample of roofing or floor covering," said M. J. Abelman, manager of the store, "but to visualize it in a finished job is quite another matter. Why try to describe the effect of a certain color combination or style of treatment when it can be presented to the customer's view on a section of floor and wall in our showroom?"

This view was shared by H. C. Thie, in charge of the floor covering, wainscoting and insulation department, who stressed the invitation to the public to visit the store during opening week, which will be observed through Saturday.

Also available for consultation and advice with visitors is P. R. Singletary, southern branch manager of the Wadsworth-Howland Company, manufacturers of the Bay State line of paints, varnishes and paint accessories.

Besides Bay State paints, for which the new store is headquarters in Atlanta, it features such nationally known lines as Flintridge roofing materials, Johns-Manville products, Gimco Rockwool insulation, Marsh wall tile wainscoting, and linoleum, asphalt, tile and rubber floor coverings.

DANISH GOVERNMENT ORDERS NEW ELECTIONS

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Oct. 1.—(P)—The government prorogued parliament today, dissolved the lower house and ordered new elections.

Premier T. Stauning explained that the government decided to appeal to the nation because it found it impossible to obtain any effective co-operation with the opposition in seeking to surmount an economic crisis, especially in regard to prices for agricultural produce.

Party Conventions Sought.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 1.—(P)—Hotel and restaurant interests pledged $35,000 today toward a fund to bring one or both of the national party nominating conventions to Kansas City next year.

Conrad Mann, general committee chairman, said it was planned to raise $150,000.

Ethiopia May Stake All Munitions On Hopes for British Intervention

Selassie Believes British Blockade of Eritrean Routes Would Bring Any Possible Aggression by Italy To Early, Unsuccessful End.

By LAURENCE STALLINGS.
Copyright, 1935, by the North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc., and Fox Movie-News.

HARAR, Ethiopia, Sept. 30.—(By Wire)—Ethiopian military leaders on the southern front, facing Italian Somaliland, have just returned to Harar from Addis Ababa, where they conferred with Emperor Haile Selassie and the northern commanders during the Feast of Maskal.

While considering war with Italy imminent, the military leaders do not expect any early defeats owing to the pressure of superior munitions.

The Ethiopians now intend to spend their own slender stocks of munitions without restriction, rather than conserve them for a long war. This decision is unquestionably predicated on their belief that England's flashing of her naval strength in the Red sea presages a blockade of the Eritrean munition routes in the event of Italian aggression in Ethiopia.

Long War Costly.

Prince Workup, a cousin of the emperor, discussed the situation with this correspondent.

"Our people could defeat Italy in five years of war, without munitions, but at a fearful price to our manpower," the prince said. "A blockade of Italian munition routes would permit us to use all our munitions in the early battles, and thus we could prevent any Italian advances. While we still hope to avert war, the English fleet assures us of a short conflict."

Despite such optimism, Ethiopia is still rushing munitions through British Somaliland, having purchased a fleet of more than 100 trucks now running to Hargeisa, British Somaliland, across the border from Gorbah. At Gorbah, a field wireless set functions perfectly, controlling the vast nomadic reserves centered around the town of Sasa Baneh, which the military staff now considers unpassable.

Concealed Artillery.

Your correspondent knows when he is in the vicinity of hill tops concealing mountain guns because the trueness of the soldiers guarding the approaches is unsurpassed. Indeed, the surest evidence of the increasing fortifications encircling Upper Ogaden is shown when passage is refused, regardless of the authority permitting such refusal. Two rural militiamen at Mejat were sentenced to six months in irons by a Harar tribunal because they were overzealous martinet.

England's prestige is tremendous here now and smiles instead of scowls greet English-speaking white men. There is no attempt to deny a British permit for the passage of materials from British Somaliland into Ethiopia, provided these materials are not intended for purposes of aggression, which Ethiopia disavows. The munitions are mainly of German manufacture, purchased through Czech firms.

Rainfall has ceased at the frontiers, making the terrain easily passable for war gear and hence open to invasion. The writer can testify, however, that the upland slopes are still a morass. For example, a truck that makes a hundred miles in 12 hours over the desert country requires that long to negotiate 50 miles over the Jijiga road, where the escarpment is identical with the country wherever the plateau rings Ethiopia with a natural wall. The passage of trucks requires constant vigilance and hard work, much towing with ropes, and lucky breaks for the ignition and carburetor.

European attaches at Dire-dawa, midway on the Djibouti-Addis Ababa railway line, are smiling in the belief they can recall their wives and families by October 10, provided no aggressive move is made by Italy or Ethiopia in the interim.

The Ethiopians await war, in the valleys and on the hillsides. A burly soldier assured me today he had a shaving mirror which need not be flashed in the sky to bring down airplanes.

LIGHTNING IS NOT DANGEROUS TO AIRCRAFT IN STORMS

The popular idea that lightning might strike a plane in mid-flight while in flight during storms has been disproved by the National Advisory Committee on Aeronautics. In a recent report, stating that lightning is not dangerous to aircraft in flight during storms, and that the chief danger during storms is from the wind. The wrecking of the Akron caused many reports that lightning had struck the dirigible had been struck by lightning, but later investigations showed that this was only a guess and was quite impossible.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

ADVENTURES OF HENRY HUDSON

III—Up and Down a River.

After finding Manhattan island, Hudson and his men sailed northward, against the current of a broad and beautiful river.

The Indians had several names for the river. Some called it the "Shata-muc," others the "Mohican." Today it is known as the Hudson in honor of the captain of the "Half Moon."

It was early autumn when the vessel started up the river. The men aboard kept watching the shores. They saw bany, a visit was made to the village of an old chief. In telling of this event, Hudson wrote:

"He was chief of 40 men, whom I saw in a house of oak bark, circular in shape and with arched roof. It contained a great quantity of corn and beans."

"On our coming into the house, two mats were spread to sit upon, and food was served in red wooden bowls. Two men were dispatched in quest of game, and brought in a pair of pigeons. They likewise killed a fat dog. The land is the finest for cultivation that I ever in my life set foot upon."

North of the site of Albany, Hudson found that the river was too shallow for his vessel to go farther. This meant that he had failed to find a water passage through North America.

The return journey down the Hudson river was faster, but not so pleasant. On the way up, Hudson had made the mistake of capturing two Indians and holding them against their will. He wanted them to serve as guides, and perhaps would have taken them back to Holland to show the people what the natives were like; but they escaped, and went back to their tribe.

Later, while the "Half Moon" was at anchor near Stony Point, an Indian tried to steal something by reaching through a porthole, and was shot by a sailor.

Those events stirred up trouble. Angry Indians lay in wait on Manhattan island, and sent arrows at the ship when it passed. The arrows did no damage, but some of the Indians were shot down when a volley was fired from the "Half Moon."

GOV. TALMADGE ISSUES ATTACK ON ROOSEVELT

1936 Will See "Swing Back to Americanism," President's Antagonist Claims.

Answering the President's speech at Boulder dam, Governor Talmadge in a statement yesterday said "this tax craze and fever will be short-lived" and added that the 1936 will see "a swing back to Americanism."

He asserted that when that was done there will be "real recovery."

The statement follows:

"I listened at a speech yesterday by President Roosevelt at Boulder dam. He stated that this dam cost the government only $108,000,000. He further stated that this dam on the Colorado river formed the largest artificial lake in the world—holding enough water to cover the state of Connecticut to a depth of 10 feet.

While I was listening at this speech I wondered what was the need of spending all these millions of dollars to irrigate land for people to settle on and grow crops, while the government was paying people to abandon land that needed no irrigation.

"I noticed in this morning's paper that the President says there will be no need to raise federal taxes any more, unless the processing taxes of the AAA are declared unconstitutional by the supreme court.

"They have admitted at last that taxes are what they want, and the processing taxes that they are grinding out of food and raiment is going to keep up this great patronage and plunder system that they have spread over this country.

"But this tax craze and fever will be short-lived. The 1936 election will swing back to real Americanism and stop the most gigantic tax system that was ever forced upon an unsuspecting people.

When this is done a natural recovery and a sound recovery will come back to this country—and not until then."

Injunction Preventing Marriage Of Murderer to Sisk Girl Granted

A temporary injunction preventing Marvin Honea, condemned slayer, from marrying Aileen Sisk, was granted yesterday in Fulton superior court as developments came thick and fast in Honea's marriage muddle.

The injunction was signed by Judge John D. Humphries a short while after J. W. Weaver, attorney for Honea, withdrew from the undefended divorce calendar Honea's petition for a final divorce decree from his first wife.

Another attorney, Linton James, acting for Honea and the slayer's parents, today will request a 40-day reprieve from the governor and will ask the prison commission to commute Honea's death sentence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Honea, parents of the condemned youth, petitioned for the injunction to prevent their son marrying the Sisk girl, whom they termed "notorious." They set forth that Honea, who was convicted for the murder of David A. Lord, is under sentence to be electrocuted October 12 and that he is a ward of the state.

The father and mother contended that he is emotionally insane and Attorney James said he would ask the prison commission to have the youth examined by physicians to determine whether or not he is mentally unbalanced.

The parents stated that their son's second wife, (to whom he is allegedly not legally married because he was never divorced from his first wife, Mrs. Bessie Honea) is about to become a mother and is hourly expecting the arrival of her baby.

They petitioned Judge Humphries to enjoin Aileen Sisk from marrying Honea because she is under several indictments, some of which are for crimes punishable with death, and therefore she would be tried under the name of Honea. Mr. and Mrs. Honea asked the court not to allow their name to be used for publicity purposes by the girl.

Judge Humphries indicated that the petition for a permanent injunction probably will be heard early next week.

Honea yesterday morning was scheduled to receive the second divorce decree from his first wife in Judge Hugh M. Dorsey's court, but that action was withdrawn from the calendar. The slayer was rescheduled to die Monday by Judge G. H. Howard.

'WILL' OF MRS. WOOD
DECLARED SPURIOUS

NEW YORK Oct. 1.—(AP)—A purported last testament of the late Mrs. Ida E. Wood, bequeathing half her million-dollar estate to the city of New York and half to Mrs. Truuda Carpenter Hammond, of Amite, La., was declared to be a forgery here today by Public Administrator James F. Egan.

In filing the purported will, Egan said it had been found to be spurious by Elbridge W. Stein, a handwriting expert.

The estate of the late 94-year-old widow, who died in 1932 after an eccentric existence of two years unattended in a hotel room, has been the object of tangled litigation for some 1,200 reported relatives and claimants to the fortune.

BIG WORKS PROJECTS STRANDED BY SWITCH

Billion Dollars Worth of Public Works Goes Beyond Control of PWA.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—A billion dollars' worth of public work and housing projects were left stranded today as the Works Progress Administration started syphoning off what was left of the $4,000,000,000 relief fund.

PWA officials, watching the money go beyond their control, said that they had received many protests from communities whose applications were embraced in that billion dollars of projects turned down because the funds have been switched to the Works Progress Administration. The latter agency proposes to use the money in its effort to put 3,000,000 persons to work before the end of this month.

Some of them hinted it was unlikely congress would make any hefty relief appropriation without specifically detailing how the money was to go. A request for a separate appropriation of $500,000,000 for the more desirable leftover applications was reported to be under study.

The concluding phases of the argument between Secretary Ickes of PWA and Harry L. Hopkins of WPA over how to spend $4,000,000,000 was assumed to have traveled westward with President Roosevelt. Ickes and Hopkins were with him on the cross-country trip.

When PWA last night announced virtually its last allotments, it tallied up $327,000,000 from the works relief funds. This contrasted with a billion and a quarter in applications for the $400,000,000 earmarked by congress.

2 POLICEMEN BACK MRS. SAGE'S CLAIM

East Chicago Officers Say 'Woman in Red' Put Dillinger 'On Spot.'

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The story of two East Chicago policemen today was added to that of Melvin H. Purvis in support of Mrs. Anna Sage's claim that she was entitled to remain in America for bringing John Dillinger to his death.

Detective Sergeant Martin Zarkovich, of the Indiana suburb, who was one of the officers who laydied the Hooner outlaw, disclosed that Timothy O'Neill, former East Chicago police captain, fired the shot which killed Dillinger, and declared Mrs. Sage, known as the "woman in red" put the outlaw "on the spot."

O'Neill confirmed Zarkovich's story and said he believed the federal government should keep faith with Mrs. Sage.

"That is the only way to catch up with notorious criminals," he asserted.

QUEENS OF BEAUTY LUNCHEON GUESTS

Davison-Paxon's Honors Fair Representatives From Six Southeastern States.

The six beauty queens representing the southeastern states at the Southeastern Fair this week were honor guests at a luncheon given Tuesday noon in the restaurant of the Davison-Paxon Company by officials of the company.

Colonel Fred J. Paxon, president of Davison-Paxon and chairman of the board of the Southeastern Fair Association, acted as master of ceremonies. The beauty queens from Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama and Florida together with their official chaperons were the guests at this informal occasion.

Following the luncheon the "queens" were taken for a tour of the large Peachtree store and as one of them said, "Even the thrills we've had already can't equal the thrill to a woman of seeing the bright new styles for fall and winter for the first time."

DAUGHTER OF WILLYS LAUNCHES WILL FIGHT

'Plotting' Charged to Step-mother To Destroy Necessary Papers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—On the ground that she is "informed and believes" her stepmother "will resort to any and all means" to destroy evidence necessary to litigation, Mrs. Virginia Clayton Willys de Landa today petitioned for appointment of a temporary administrator for the estate of her father, the late John N. Willys, automobile magnate and one-time ambassador to Poland.

Willys died at his Riverside, N. Y., home last August 26, about eight months after he married his second wife, Mrs. Florence Dolan Willys. Willys' will was filed for probate in Palm Beach, Fla., and a caveat has been filed against it by Charles E. Metz, Willys' former secretary.

Mrs. Willys was one of three named as executors in the will. In her petition, filed before Surrogate Albert Henderson, Mrs. de Landa stated she "believes and is advised" that assets of the estate in New York included securities and brokerage accounts which required supervision and conservation, besides large bank deposits and other personal property. Stock and other marketable securities she estimated as worth more than $800,000.

The petitioner charged that her stepmother with Albert C. Fordham, curator of the estate, and two others, Arthur W. Pickett and Marion Paul Gooding, broke into Willys' New York office and took possession and removed certain documents and destroyed records and evidence necessary to the proper determination of the litigation.

Mrs. Willys, according to Mrs. de Landa's information and belief, "will resort to any and all means to destroy evidence and divert assets belonging to the said estate unless a temporary administrator is appointed by the court, and the said persons are precluded from having any access thereto."

JERSEY G. O. P. FAVORS REPEAL OF SALES TAX

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 1.—(AP)—The republican state convention today approved a plank calling for repeal of the New Jersey state sales tax.

The plank was offered by the Rev. Dr. Lester H. Cleer, senatorial candidate, with the approval of the platform committee and of Governor Hoffman.

The Governor told the convention he still believed the republican candidates in next month's election thought tax necessary, but recognized the fact the majority of the members were nominated on a pledge to fight for repeal.

THEFTS FROM ACTORS LANDS BROKER IN JAIL

Larceny of $1,500 From Mrs. Will Rogers Latest Charge Against Agent.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—An insurance broker entangled with the business of theatrical celebrities for 20 years was arrested today charged with stealing a $1,524.21 dividend check from the widow of Will Rogers.

The prisoner, John J. Kemp, 51, with offices on Fifth avenue, was known as "the actors' insurance man." His sales were so large he was an honor member of the "Million-Dollar Club" of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. He also is a member of the Lambs Club, the Friars and other well-known clubs.

"I've expected this for seven years," he was quoted as saying by detectives, who said his pecuniations from scores of well-known persons would aggregate $300,000.

Police listed among his victims W. C. Fields in the amount of $2,500; Betty Compton, wife of former Mayor James J. Walker, $330; Willie Howard, the comedian, $400; Arthur "Bugs" Baer, humorist, $1,500; J. Harold Murray, motion picture actor, $2,800; Wellington Cross, actor, $3,000; Lou Silver, song writer, $1,085; John Charles Thomas, singer, $15,000; and Vivienne Segal, $12,000.

AMERICAN OIL COMPANY

Durham Faces Brilheart in Third Game; A's Draft Kelley

BREAK O'DAY!
By Ralph McGill

EN ROUTE OKLAHOMA CITY WITH ATLANTA BASEBALL TEAM, Oct. 1.—Well, a lot of scenery is getting past the window. Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee. Lots of scenery.

Ahead lies Oklahoma City, to be reached shortly before noon Wednesday, and in the evening our brave lads from Ponce de Leon will go in there against the Indians in the third game of the Dixie series.

Meanwhile, there is nothing but scenery. Two ball clubs are aboard the same train. The ball player in repose is not taken generally as a thing of beauty. Mostly, he is in his sock feet, and he snores slightly as he reclines in his Pullman seat.

A few desultory card games go on. In the Oklahoma City cars, there is poker and hearts. In the Atlanta car, the effete game of bridge seems to have no opposition.

You meet Jack Holland, owner of the Oklahoma City team. He has been in baseball for more than 30 years, and is one of the few independent club owners left in the minor leagues. His health is bad—doctors advised him the long trip to Atlanta might prove fatal. He is along.

"If my team wins this series, I will throw away all my pills," he growled.

Jack Holland has seen minor league baseball grow to the point where he spends more on bringing his team to Atlanta and back than he used to spend on an entire season.

The states of Alabama and Mississippi are dusty, and the dust fills the car, coming through the screens. The desolate little towns with their inevitable bales of cotton about the warehouse near the railroad track go by. Every town seems exactly like the last in the cotton belt.

INDIANS MEET CRACKERS.

Jimmy Humphries, business manager of the Oklahoma Indians, gets a wire from the home town. Oklahoma City, with the usual zeal of the smaller city winning its first real pennant, is excited. Bands will play, and real Indians will greet the teams when they arrive tomorrow noon.

There are some fairly wild Indians on the Oklahoma City team when it comes to poker. But no real Indians. So the Chamber of Commerce is sending to the Arapahoe reservation some 60 miles away and bringing in some of the tribe to greet the players. They will be in full regalia, and before the game Wednesday night there will be an Indian dance.

Sometimes I wonder what they think, the Indians. The pale face has driven them from all the land that is worth anything. They owned large chunks of land in Oklahoma until oil was discovered. Maybe they don't think about it.

The Arapahoes were never a great nation, but one of the better ones given to peaceful ways, though good fighters when aroused.

There will be the Indians in their feathers; bands playing and parades. And then the night game.

The Crackers are confident. They believe they are the better baseball club. But they know, too, the difficulties of proving anything in a short series. Still they move in, confident of taking the series.

BASEBALL "CHEATERS."

In another car the four umpires ride. They belong to no race, no creed. Ball players let them severely alone. They let ball players alone.

Buck Campbell, one of the Southern league umpires, believes baseball fans are softening up. They no longer throw bottles. A few years ago, pop bottle showers were almost daily occurrences.

"There were several times in the old days when I thought the wife was going to collect that policy," he says. The talk swings from town to town—tough towns, good towns, peculiar towns.

THE UMPIRES' RECORD.

There is a great deal said about umpires. But it so happens their record is the cleanest thing connected with the national game.

Never once has there been a case where an umpire was connected with anything dishonest in connection with his profession. Baseball players have been involved in many scandals. One group of them, the Black Sox, rocked the very foundation of the game in 1919. The players can't point with pride. But the umpires may. Their record is a most remarkable one. Yet there is no record even of gamblers approaching an

'GREEN' DEVILS GIVE JACKETS REAL BATTLE

Tech Drills on Passing and Punting in Heavy Workout.

Dave Wilcox Added To Jacket Staff

Dave Wilcox, scrapping Tech guard of last year, yesterday was added to the coaching staff by Coach W. A. Alexander. Wilcox will work with the Gray Devils and do some of the scouting. Dave worked alongside Clyde (For Wee) Williams last year and the two of them formed quite a combination. Dave makes a splendid addition to the staff. Roy MacArthur and Joe Westbrook thus are enabled to spend more time with the freshmen.

By Jack Troy.

It was just before dusk yesterday that the "Green" Devils, looking huge and imposing even in that rather indistinct light, came charging up to meet the Tech varsity in a scrimmage at the Rose Bowl.

The Green Devils, who are really a husky group of freshmen who take great delight in smashing the varsity players, offered some real opposition while the work lasted.

The varsity indeed was given a jam-up workout in trying to make progress against the Greenies, who were on the defense most of the time.

GRESHAM SMASHES.

Old Tech men sitting in the stands watched with keen enjoyment the smashing end play of Gresham, butted freshman from Greenville, S. C. Gresham scrambled varsity interference and then made a sort of omelet out of the ball carrier.

Big George Smith, who prepped at Lanier, was very effective on the other end. The two tackles, Rimmer, McCallie, and Cushman, Tech heavyweights, were kept out of the varsity backfield. They slashed right in with complete disregard of the fact that their opponents were varsity men.

J. L. Brooks, at left guard, made several smashing tackles. In the backfield Bill Gibson and Crockett made their presence felt on defense.

"DEVILS" EAGER.

The Jackets, drilling on punting and passing, were put to the test. The Green Devils were eager to be up and at them and were keenly aggressive and headup at all times.

Bill Gibson, brother of Hoot, varsity right end and alternate-captain, put a block on Hoot early in the drill that simply caused him to collapse like a folding chair.

There was some excellent passing by the varsity at times, with Scarpay Edwards rifling short aerials to Dutch Koenemann, the flying Dutchman. Edwards fetched back a number of punts for good gains.

Advisability of not grounding fair catches was the big question of the day. Whether or not he wants the free kick was stressed during the drill. The Jackets tried the free kick, with Lawrence Hays booting and Hays kicking the ball out of bounds just short of the Green Devil goal.

KONEMANN GAINS.

Dutch Koenemann was the chief ground gainer of the day. The flying Dutchman scored twice, once on pass and once on an off-tackle run. He gave the Green Devils a fit.

Big, good-natured, Preston received a lateral yesterday and had a touchdown sure, but he stopped and ran around looking for a teammate to pass to. Preston is a coach's son of a center and he also trucks with the ball on laterals.

The Jackets tried only one placement yesterday and Ed Jones, sophomore end, made it good. Scarpay Edwards held the ball.

There was a good chance yesterday for the Jackets to put on the blocks and they carried out their assignments well in most instances.

IN BUM SHAPE.

Coach Alex said later, however, that "we are in pretty bad shape. The players run down under a couple of punts and come back blowing like a couple of old horses."

Cline Eubanks, tackle, and Fulton Brittain, guard, reported in light togethery and took part in the exercises only. Both will miss the Sewanee game Saturday.

YOUNG SHOUN BREAKS THUMB

DETROIT, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs suffered the first casualty of the World Series today when Clyde Shoun, rookie left-handed pitcher, broke his right thumb on a line drive from Manager Charlie Grimm's bat near the close of batting practice in the Detroit Tigers' park.

Shoun was not expected to appear in any of the series games, but Grimm had planned to use him each day as a batting practice pitcher. He joined the Cubs in July from Birmingham, Ala., in the Southern association, after winning 12 games and losing 8 in his first year in professional baseball. The Cubs voted him a half share in the series out.

With the Cub workout almost over, Grimm, who may get into the series himself only as a pinch hitter, whacked a line drive straight at the youngster. Shoun tried to duck, but left his gloved hand in the way. The ball bounced off his right thumb.

"It's broke," Shoun said, and walked off the mound.

The thumb apparently was fractured at the base, Grimm, pessimist, took the pitcher in search of a doctor.

Detroit Fans Regard Cubs as a Substitute

People Were Fixed To Watch Renewal of Card-Tiger Series, Declares Pegler.

By Westbrook Pegler.

DETROIT, Oct. 1.—This is the little hour of the World Series hero. He shoulders his way through crowds. He signs his name to old envelopes and odd fragments of paper.

Local merchants give him a hat, suit, radio or a refrigerator, with perhaps a few dollars on the side, in return for his testimonial. Reporters from the papers look him up to ask him how he slept and how he had for breakfast and whether he calls his wife "Honey" or "Toots" or what.

His old pa and ma, in from the farm find themselves in conversation with a young woman with a pencil and, a few hours later, are pleased to read in the paper their 10 rules for the raising of a son. They are glad to get in this time, except the Detroit Tigers, who are holdover heroes from 1934 and a few individuals on the Cubs who have had previous experience.

This is his hour. He is a short-term hero. A June-bug god of the people, whose average span is about one week. There have been almost a thousand of him in the 30-odd years of the World Series and all but a hundred are forgotten along with their deeds. All these past heroes will have to pay to get in this time, except the Detroit Tigers, who are holdover heroes from 1934 and a few individuals on the Cubs who have had previous experience.

The Cardinals brought in the interesting Dean brothers, Dizzy and Duffy, who announced that they would win four games all by themselves and did so. They also had their repressible Pepper Martin, who took the most astounding liberties with the champion club of the American league and got away with them, and they had Ducky Medwick who clawed Marvin Owen with his spurs and kicked up a riot. This was the sort of World Series which the customers had built their ideals around when the Cubs went crazy in the last weeks of the recent season to win the pennant in their league and became the parties of the second part. It is almost as though a promoter were to run in a substitute for one of the principals in a prizefight for the heavyweight championship of the world.

CUBS UNKNOWN.

The people here do not know much about the Cubs, some of whom are new boys and most of whom are normal, conventional ball players without interesting peculiarities, either professional or social. They are known as a young, sandlot team and though the press has been given each member of the team his due and more, still the people retain their poise right up to the hour of the great event. CRACKERS SEEK TO TAKE LEAD IN DIXIE SERIES

Bud Thomas Develops a Charley Horse, But Atlantans Confident.

Athletics Draft Harry Kelley

DETROIT, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Taking full advantage of their priority rights as the cellar team in the American league for 1935, the Philadelphia Athletics, drafted two minor league players in the annual draft session tonight.

They were Pitcher Harry Kelley, who won 23 and lost 13 for Atlanta this year, and Outfielder George Pucettini, Baltimore outfielder who led the International league in batting with an unofficial average of .359, making 53 home runs, scoring 135 runs and driving in 172 runs.

The St. Louis Browns drafted Catcher Angelo Guilianni of St. Paul, who batted .276 this season.

National league clubs announced no draft selections at the meeting.

EN ROUTE OKLAHOMA CITY WITH ATLANTA BASEBALL TEAM, Oct. 1.—Bobby Durham's good right arm will swing in behalf of the Atlanta Crackers Wednesday night in the third game of the Dixie series to be played at the park of Bert Niehoff's Oklahoma City Indians.

For the Indians, Bert Niehoff has selected John Benson Brillheart, a very troublesome person indeed to past Atlanta baseball teams. He is one of those southpaws and Niehoff is using him on a hunch, because of his past record against the Atlanta team, and also because of his left arm. Johnny Hill, Joe Hutchinson and Alex Hooks swing from the left side of the plate. They are three of the better Atlanta hitters and they find left-handed curves more troublesome than those thrown normally.

NIEHOFF'S HUNCH.

It was this same Brillheart who stopped the Cracker rally on Sunday. And this added strength to Niehoff's hunch to start him in tomorrow night's game underneath the Oklahoma sky and lights.

The Crackers, with all the confidence in the world in young Bobby Durham, will go into the game confident they will emerge from it leading two games to one.

The Atlanta pitching problem, already comparable to any League of Nations puzzle, is complicated by the fact that Bud Thomas has developed a Charley horse and may not be able to pitch. The painful lunge was stabled in his right leg after warming up on that cold Monday night when the Crackers won.

SCHMIDT THURSDAY.

Bill Schmidt, the big right-hander, who has been handicapped all season by three impacted and infected wisdom teeth, but recently discovered, will be handed the ball on Thursday night. If his arm is not in pain from the infection, which comes and goes, he should be able to beat the Indians. He has plenty of heart.

Cracker headquarters will be at the Wells Roberts hotel. The game begins at 8 o'clock there which also happens to be 8 o'clock in Atlanta.

Cubs and Tigers Renew Old Rivalry in World Series Today

LON WARNEKE OPPOSES ROWE IN FIRST GAME

Capacity Crowd Expected at Detroit; Close Series Forecast.

By Alan Gould.

DETROIT, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The new boom in American sports, given impetus this year by a succession of sensational developments on widely scattered fields of combat, tonight engulfed one of the nation's oldest, most familiar spectacles—the World Series. Baseball's big show, sinking off the chilling effects of an unwelcome blast of football weather, opens tomorrow in full panoply. It brings together the Detroit Tigers, two-time American league champions, and the Chicago Cubs, stretch-sensations of the National league pennant race, in an up-roar of old-time rivalry.

Navin field, furnishing the starting battleground for the second straight year, likely will be packed to its capacity of 48,700, a new high for the park, when the two lanky sharpshooters from Arkansas, Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, of the Tigers, and Lonnie Warneke, of the Cubs, unnerve their good right arms for a pitching duel that may add a bright chapter to World Series history.

SELL OUT.

With warmer, more reasonable weather promised for the opening day, it looked like a certain sell-out. Only expected reluctance on the part of cash customers seeking bleacher seats at $1.10 each in the huge temporary stands expected off the outfield can keep the park from being filled. All reserved seats have been sold. Speculators were getting $25 to $50 apiece for choice locations. The supply appeared far short of the demand.

It will be a million-dollar series if only five games are played, taking into account the fact that $100,000 for the radio rights will be added to the gate receipts. A six or seven-game battle, which left at all unlikely, will mean an all-time financial record. The previous high mark of $1,207,000 was set by the Yankees and Cardinals in 1926 in seven games. The Cubs ruled favorites in the betting tonight to take the opening game, not only because they are rated the "hotter club" but because of the acknowledged prowess of their right-handed ace, Warneke. The Tigers have been slight favorites to capture the series, among wagering men, but a rush of Chicago money indicated a possible switch. It may be an even-money proposition by tomorrow. Based upon the pre-series evidence, it looks like the biggest betting series in at least six years.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Wallace Wade's Duke Blue Devils and the University of Chicago have been ordered on the football schedule of Vanderbilt University for 1936. Athletic Director Dan E. McGugin said today.

Replacing Temple and Fordham University of this year's schedule, both teams will be played away from Nashville.

Mid-Georgia Opens Season on Friday

COCHRAN, Ga., Oct. 1.—Middle Georgia College will open the season here Friday, October 4, with the Mercer freshmen. Coach Jake Morris and Frank Trotter have been working overtime trying to replace Jimmie Carson and Wesley Watson, two fine backs of last season.

The 1934 Middle Georgia team won the Southern Junior College championship by defeating six of the best junior colleges in the south and the team is determined to carry on where the 1934 team stopped.
Coach Morris has built up a line that averages around 190 pounds but he is somewhat afraid that his backs will not be able to block, pass and run as the 1934 team did.
Coach Morris will probably start the following players against the

ATLANTA PREP FANS OFFERED TWO BIG TILTS

Commercial Plays G. M. A., Boys' High Battles Monroe.

A choice of two of the best games of the season will be offered Atlanta's prep football fans Thursday when Commercial High plays G. M. A. at Decatur and Boys' High plays Monroe Aggies at Grant field. Both games will start at 8 o'clock, and two championship ratings will hang in the balance.

The G. M. A.-Commercial game, after several weeks of negotiating for a field, was finally set for Decatur Thursday instead of Friday. A school holiday caused the change.

Other prep games for the week include Tech High and Riverside Friday night at Grant field; Russell and R. E. Lee, Friday afternoon at East Point; Decatur and Spaulding County, Friday night at Decatur; and Marietta and Griffin, Friday night in Griffin.

BOTH IN RUNNING.
The Boys' High-Monroe Aggie game should be of particular importance since both are very much in the running for state championship honors this year. Monroe beat a strong Henderson eleven, 19 to 0, last Saturday at Savannah in its opener, and Boys' High is unbeaten in three games.

Coaches Red Barron and Norris Dean and their Aggie eleven are pointing to the Thursday night game at Grant field. It will be one of the highlights of the Aggie schedule, and every effort is being made to drop Boys' High from the undefeated list.

GOING ON SHELVE.
Shorty Doyle and Dwight Keith are trying out several backfield combinations at Boys' High this week. Roy Gore is still suffering from a gum infection and will be on the sidelines. McDuffie took his place last week and it is likely that the same combination of Mims at quarterback, Massengale and Captain Ehrlich, halfbacks, and McDuffie, fullback, will open against Mercer. Bond, injured early in the season, is ready for duty and Orrenstein, one of the fastest players on the team, have been showing up well in practice this week.

G. M. A. is making a determined bid for city championship honors and a victory Thursday will place the Cadets in the undefeated class with Boys' High. The Cadets are the most improved team in the city and have already scored 79 points in two games.

World Series Sidelights

DETROIT, Oct. 1.—(AP)—There's nothing slow about the big Arkansas "trains" who will meet in the opener of the World Series tomorrow. Lonnie Warneke and Schoolboy Rowe, both from Arkansas, are two of the best speed ball pitchers in the game.

The "Schoolboy" can't be taunted into a slow game by the razzing Cubs unless they get something new. Last year, the St. Louis Cardinals drove Rowe to distraction by shouting: "How'n I doing, Edna?" Edna then was the "Schoolboy's" sweetheart awaiting the march to the altar. Now, she is Mrs. Rowe. She won't attend the opener. She'll be missing the baby in their home at El Dorado, Arkansas.

Scalpers has a field day in Detroit today until the buyers struck. When the scalpers demanded as high as $60 a ticket for tomorrow's opener, the buyers went on a strike. The public ticket sale opens at 9 a. m. tomorrow. Long lines of fans waited the opening.

Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis took the umpires along with him to Navin field today to study ground rules. It was decided that any ball that came off the fence was a ball in play; that a ball that stuck in the screen in short field was a double, and that any ball that came off the sign board in right and into the seats was a double. The commissioner also asked the umpires to exercise the utmost leniency with players in disputes. He doesn't want a repetition of last year's argument which resulted in Joe Medwick being ejected from the final game.

Cub pitchers took a sneak peek at big Hank Greenberg in batting practice.

"He can't hit a high one past the infield," they agreed.

The Tigers will have plenty of money to buy headache pills if the Cubs should treat them roughly in the series. They were paid off today by Owner Frank J. Navin.

The Cubs liked the close-in left field bleachers, only 301 feet from the plate.

"How long has this been going on?" asked Catcher Gabby Hartnett, a dead left field hitter.

Manager-Catcher Mickey Cochran and Catcher Hartnett were posing for photographers.

"Hey, both of you, look up in the air like you're looking at a high foul," suggested the cameraman.

"Nothing doing," snapped Mickey. "Our necks probably will get stiff enough looking at 'em all this week."

Baseball stars were slow in arriving for the big show. Only a few could be found outside the principals. But they probably will change their minds and rush in tomorrow.

Over in the press headquarters, the writers missed a great figure. For several World Series they have listened to and laughed themselves sick at the jokes of the late Will Rogers. Last fall, Will spun stories about his world tour for five solid hours.

Joe Louis (how the Tigers and Cubs could use his punch) will watch the Detroit games. Dead Pan Joe said he thought the Tigers would win in the sixth round with a hard left. (He meant the sixth game with a home run in the left field seats.)

Whether or not Rodgers will be out of action in the Crescent City Saturday will not be known until the squad departs for Tulane, but present indications are that he will be able to play if he remains in bed until Wednesday afternoon. The college physician believes that a few days indoors will bring him around, but it remains to be seen what condition he will be in after missing several necessary practices, even if he is in shape to don a uniform for Wednesday's drill.

Filling in for Rodgers on the first team is Sophomore Freddie Holman, of Dothan, the home of several crack athletes in recent years. Holman was a splendid prospect in the spring, but returned for his opening campaign over 20 pounds off in weight because of an attack of malaria. He is slowly looking like the Holman that was slated to give Rodgers a run for his money in the first-string race a few months ago, but he is still many steps away from his spring training form and it will be quite a spell before he regains all of his lost poundage and reaches his maximum ability.

Given a chance to open against such an outstanding foe as Tulane, Holman might show up better than expected this week and step into Rodgers' shoes and do a capable job. His first start was against Birmingham-Southern and his performance was satisfactory when all angles were considered. It is no secret about Holman's ability and the coaches are counting on him developing into one of Auburn's most valuable forwards. But his development will be slow because of illness during the summer months.

Holman in place of Rodgers was the only noticeable change on the coveted eleven as the Plainsmen plunged into hard work for Tulane.

Hammond Loses Garden Position

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The struggle of the "embattled colonels" for control of New York's great sports arena, Madison Square Garden, apparently reached its final round today as Colonel John S. Hammond lost his position as chairman of the board of directors.

He was replaced by Stanton Griffiths, a partner in the brokerage firm of Hemphill, Noyes & Company, as the Garden's new board of directors, chosen last Friday after protracted proxy battle between Hammond and Colonel John R. Kilpatrick, president, met for the first time.

Kilpatrick was again named president of the corporation and of its subsidiary, the New York Rangers' Professional Hockey Club, as had been anticipated. The latter position was formerly held by Hammond.

GEORGIA LINEUP SAME SATURDAY AS FIRST GAME

Paul Causey Disappoints in Anderson's Shoes; Passing Batter.

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 1.—No new changes of any consequence are likely in the Georgia Bulldog lineup for the second game of the season with "Scrappy" Moore's University of Chattanooga Moccasins in Chattanooga Saturday.

Paul Causey, Deland, Fla. halfback, was being groomed to fill in injured Alf Anderson's gap temporarily today. However, he was not showing up as well as was hoped. In order to keep in trim, Anderson may begin running signals with the team the latter part of this week or the first of next week. He will be unable to handle the ball until later.

Reserves, with two first-string backfield men gracing their lineup,

Bud Harris Blocked For Billy Bancroft

Former Howard Star, Now G. M. A. Coach, Has Praise for Former Teammate.

By Jack Troy.

Howard's amazing feat in holding Alabama to a tie last week carried Clifton (Bud) Harris, G. M. A.'s head football coach, back several years to the days when he was a blocking back and Billy Bancroft, Howard coach, was a star ball carrier.

"Billy was a senior at Howard and I was just a sophomore," Harris said. "I didn't expect to make the team that year and when I finally did, my job was to pave the way for Bancroft. I was pretty scared of the idea at first. I thought, like most sophomores do, that it was a pretty important job."

"And so, during that season, I put so much into blocking that I wondered later how it was that I managed to stay all in one piece."

Harris is of the opinion that Howard and had no better all-around back than Bancroft. "He was fast, shifty and smart. He had all the essentials and a great spirit. I thought, as a sophomore, that it was a great honor to block for him—and I still do."

TOUGH DEFENSE.

The fact that Howard always has had a tough defense team even when the offensive wasn't so much has been

Peachtree Garden Club Will Enter Float in Dogwood Festival Parade

By Sally Forth.

AS A DISTINCT compliment to Mrs. Robert L. Cooney, former president of the Peachtree Garden Club and leading figure in the dogwood festival movement, to be held here in the springtime, members of the aforementioned horticultural organization will enter a gorgeous float in the parade next spring. This decision was reached at the meeting held Monday at the Andrews drive residence of Mrs. Phinizy Calhoun, and you may be certain that the float will capture the fancy of the multitude of people coming to the dogwood festival.

There are many talented and artistic women in the Peachtree Garden Club whose decorative ideas and ability will be exemplified in the glamorous float entered in the parade. Conversation veered to the Garden History of Georgia, a volume edited and published under Mrs. Cooney's regime, and only 350 volumes were reported on hand out of the 1,500 volumes published some three years ago. Mrs. John W. Grant is chairman of the nominating committee, with Mesdames William P. Hill and Robert C. Alston serving with her, and they will report upon the officers to be elected at the October meeting of Peachtree Garden Club.

BARBARA RANSOM has many exciting autumn plans. When she leaves Atlanta a week from tomorrow, she will go first to New York city, where she will be the fete guest of Cynthia Bangs at her home on Sixty-second street. Barbara and Cynthia were schoolmates at Foxcroft in Middleburg, Va., but since leaving school they have seen little of each other. What a grand reunion it will be when they meet!

After New York, Barbara will go to Brookline, Mass., to visit another Foxcroft schoolmate, Belle Gardner, for a month. It will be the first time the two girls have seen each other in two years. Since that time Barbara has had a very gay and brilliant winter as an Atlanta debutante, and Belle has made her debut at an elaborate ball at the Ritz-Carlton in Boston. Both are Junior Leaguers and are continuing their social triumphs.

Good news for Barbara's local contemporaries is that in December, Belle will come to Atlanta for a visit. Quite naturally much pleasurable anticipation attends her visit, for she is a most attractive person, with blond coloring and lovely violet blue eyes. Already a round of gay festivities is being planned to honor Barbara and her charming guest.

CHRISTMAS bells and wedding bells will ring simultaneously for one of Atlanta's most bewitching blondes, according to the latest information received by Sally's scouts. This young lady attended the University of Georgia, where she was prominent in social activities, and a popular pledge of the Phi Mu fraternity there. She went to Washington Seminary in her earlier days, and was a member of the Phi Pi social club.

The young man, to whom she is reported engaged, is a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity, and was a football player of the University of Georgia. He graduated from that institution during the middle of last year, and is now connected with a prominent beverage bottling company in New York. The aforementioned blonde is now employed at the jewelry counter of an Atlanta store, but it's certainly not the five-and-ten.

Day of Prayer.

Grady Hospital Children's Ward Benefits From Debutantes' Decision

The charity fashion show and dance, the big event of the debutante year, will be given on October 18 for the benefit of the Grady hospital children's ward, and any other revenue filling the treasury throughout the season will be presented to the Cornelia Moore Day Nursery. The debutantes had quite a difficult time in selecting their pet charity, as all of the causes presented seemed to be more than worthy of assistance. Miss Margaret Holcomb, president of the Debutante Club of 1935-36, presided over the meeting.

Plans for the fashion show, floor show, dance, and added attractions are in full swing, and everything will be done to make the undertaking a great success. Among the added attractions will be a palm reading by Mrs. Alice Dent Jennings, who will reveal to curious Atlanta socialites the noteworthy events of the future for a small remuneration. Several orchestras are under consideration at the moment, and one will probably be selected at the called meeting Friday morning at the Driving Club.

Committees appointed are advertising: Misses Claudia Smaw, Sarah Kennan and Virginia Merry; decorations and platform, Misses Eleanor Spaulding and Betsy Spaulding; ticket sales, Miss Mary Hurt; added attractions, Miss Rebecca Young; orchestra, Miss Joyce Smith; cards, Miss Jane Adair, and other members of the club will assist these chairmen in various ways. Tickets for the occasion may be obtained for $1 each. The auspicious event will take place at the Piedmont Driving Club on October 18, and ticket sales will take place in various booths in the city.

TRI-POWER AIR ACCORD REPORTED IN MAKING

Germany, Hungary, Poland To Seek To Combat Russo-Czech "Menace."

By PAUL KECKENETTEL.

(Copyright, 1935, by the United Press.) BERLIN, Oct. 1.—(UP)—Germany, Hungary and Poland tonight were reported discussing an air pact to combat the menace of a bolshevik and Czechoslovakia have concluded an aviation agreement.

Diplomats understood that such an agreement was being negotiated with Hungarian Julius Goembs, who has talked with Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler, Air Minister Hermann Goering and other officials during his "mystery trip" to Berlin.

Polish diplomats reportedly participated in the recent "political dinner" of Goering and Goembs in East Prussia.

German political circles deeply resented the Russo-Czechoslovakian agreement allowing the soviet air force to use airports in Czechoslovakia. The military agreement, to which the air agreement was appended, likewise stiffened the opposition of two other neighbors of Czechoslovakia—Hungary and Poland.

Hungary traditionally is antagonistic to the Czechs, leading power of the Little Entente, an alliance of post-war countries dedicated to maintaining a territorial status quo injurious to Hungary.

Mr. Hawkins is negotiating for the fire-damaged Gould building at 9 Edgewood avenue and plans a two-story structure covering the two sites with store units on the Edgewood and Decatur street sides.

GRADE CROSSING FUNDS APPROVED BY U.S. BOARD

Presidential Go Ahead Signal Awaited for Many Important Projects.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—A survey showed today that less than 3.5 percent of the work relief program's $400,000,000 allocation for roads and grade-crossing eliminations had received President Roosevelt's final approval.

National Emergency Council officials reported that the Presidential go-ahead signal, contingent upon scrutiny by Comptroller-General J. R. McCarl, has been given to projects totaling only $13,702,000.

But R. E. Toms, chief of the division of design in the Bureau of Public Roads, asserted that "we have passed programs involving slightly less than $50,000,000 for grade crossings."

Toms also said that in addition to "several other programs now under review," a recent revision of regulations had made it possible to proceed with "projects of high priority" without going through the usual channels of submitting them to the Division of Applications, Allotment Board, Budget Bureau and finally to the President.

These "high priority" projects, he said, can be started if state PWA, relief and district federal engineers agree on their suitability, adding, "We have approved detailed plans for almost $25,000,000 of these."

VIRGINIAN AND WIFE ARE FOUND MURDERED

WISE, Va., Oct. 1.—(AP)—The lifeless bodies of Sam McCarthy, about 35, and his wife, Phyllis McCarthy, about 30, were found lying on the Burdick road about 10 miles north of here today, and a hastily-summoned coroner's jury decided the couple had been murdered.

Wise county officers said that Russell Hubbard, who lives in the section where the slaying occurred, came to the Wise jail today and surrendered himself, asking that he be locked up. He was otherwise non-committal.

Friendly Counsel

By CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Plans of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Four names held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

Dear Miss Chatfield: I am 22, graduated from college last spring and since that time have become engaged to a young man 29 who has an excellent position and, I should add, a wonderful disposition. We are to be married soon yet only last night were my eyes opened to a situation that frightens me. He confided in me that he was the sole support of his mother and sister. He pays their rent, furnishes them a car and assumes every cent of their expenses. His mother and sister are violently opposed to his marrying me and largely because of their dependence upon him. Now I am to be put to live with them and since my "fiance" will receive an allowance away from home most of the time I will be with his family constantly. He assures me his mother and sister will take me in as long as I am not too fat. Poor boy, I am sorry for him! He says he cannot dodge his responsibility to his family nor marry me under any other circumstances than these mentioned. My friends have given me parties and everything is in readiness for the marriage. I am frantic. Can we possibly make a go of it? Should I try it?

FRICTIONED BRIDE-TO-BE.

Answer: A sensible girl can make a go of any situation if the man she loves is at stake, but it is certain to be rough going for you as long as you must live under a roof with adoring and dependent mother and sister of your husband. There is scant chance that these two will receive you with open arms or be cordial to you when you are settled under their roof.

There is no excuse for a grown girl's teaching her brother for support and scant excuse for the mother's doing it unless she is too old or too frail to work. However, if they haven't the good judgment and the good taste to recognize this fact they won't take any tips from you. Your efforts to show the sister the necessity for her getting a job and supporting herself will have to be made under cover. Your husband must persuade her that the best way for her to be happy is to be independent of him and you. There are just two ways of doing this: getting herself a job or a husband.

It is outrageous for a man to be saddled with the support of two healthy women in addition to his wife. If money were the only thing at stake it would be bad enough, but the involvements of dependence are far-reaching and deep. When the wife buys a piece of furniture the in-laws figure out what it is costing them. When the in-laws call for cash the wife is resentful of their having access to her husband's pocketbook and the feud thus begun is never ended. It is bad enough when mother and sister are arrayed against a wife in a struggle for a man's affection, but when the money pot is thrown in for them to fight over, the combat wages furiously. CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

Please do not write unless you live outside the city, in which case enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Drop it into the water when you get into the tub and just before you get out, rub this slightly softened pumice stone over the callouses. If you are one of these people who stay in the bath a half-hour, simply pour a little of the water over the pumice stone in the soap dish, but it works better if it is damp.

Whatever you do, do not try to take it all off with the first rubbing. It will take but a few days, so take it by easy stages and do not make your feet sore.

Use a cuticle remover, just as you do on your nails. I can tell you of an excellent one that I have written about before. Be sure and put a little cotton on an orangewood stick and use the cuticle remover under the nail.

The kind of polish you use is entirely a matter of taste. There is certainly no dearth of polishes on the market.

Things That Make Women More Beautiful

(Posed by Gail Patrick)

A Home Pedicure for the Woman Who Is Fastidious

By MIGNON.

It seems to me, women are much more fastidious than they used to be about the care of their feet. So many things have been manufactured to help in the home pedicure.

In the first place, walking around without shoes on the beaches has left some pretty funny looking feet. An arch that is used to high heels and is then dropped suddenly, very often you start the season, the muscles up the back of the legs tell you plainly enough that the change to flat walking is doing something to you.

One manufacturer has made a cream, a dry cream they call it, which has a very cooling effect upon the feet. I find it healing also, and besides, it is softening. I think when you get back into shoes permanently at the end of the bathing season, it is a pretty fine idea to use something like this every night.

For those who have worn shoes all summer and have accumulated callouses, the best thing I have found is this: take a pumice stone of the kind that is used by some manicurists and keep it in the soap dish in your bathtub. Drop it into the water when you get

Miss Leide's Debut Date Announced

Miss Rosebud Leide, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enrico Leide, will make her debut at a breakfast party to be given by her parents on Saturday, November 23, at their home on Inman circle, in Ansley Park. The affair will precede the Florida-Tech football game and will assemble a large number of Atlanta's younger society.

Miss Leide is a popular member of Atlanta's 1935-36 Debutantes' Club and throughout the winter season she will be an admired figure attending the numerous social gayeties given for this season's debbies. She graduated from Washington Seminary with the class of 1933, of which she was president. While at the seminary Miss Leide was a member of the Round Table following her graduation she traveled in Europe. Last year she returned to Europe and studied at the Grenoble Institute of Languages in Naples. She speaks French and Italian fluently.

Culbertson on Contract

By ELY CULBERTSON, World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

HOW TO LEAD.

Let us try and bring some order into this vexing and complex question of leads. A lead may be defined as the play of a first card to a trick. The word "lead" is a synonym for the word "move." A move or a lead is the right to play first. This privilege is valuable in bridge because the more leads one will have the greater are his chances of establishing his tricks before the enemy can mobilize his own forces.

In the struggle of suits, as in the struggle of life, there is room only for the quickest and the strongest. In the play of own hand there are many more potential tricks than the first 13 which the rest of the team are as though they were still-born or suffer the death penalty characteristic of the pastboard warfare by being discarded. The winners, behind the play or bid there stands the inexorable shadow of time.

A lead, therefore, is a tempo or a unit of time representing one-tenth of the total 13 "hours" or moves that make up the fascinating time clock of bridge.

There are two basic problems underlying the technique of leads: which suit to choose in the hand and which cards to choose in the suit. The choice of a suit in the hand is the province of "strategy of leads." The choice of a card to lead once a suit is selected is the province of "conventions of leads" that make up the part of the game known as "defensive play." The declared laws of the game, which opponents are like two allied armies groping in the dark and ignorant of the strength, position, and disposition of each other's forces. Every deal presents a puzzle in which the separate fragments of the four suits in two unknown hands must be pieced together.

Origin of Conventions. It was the necessity to exchange information between partners that led, in early times, to the use of "signals" to the evolution of the beautiful language of partnership inferences. Good players began to distinguish between the meaning of a lead in terms of each of a king or a deuce. Such simple natural inferences crystallized, in the course of time, into conventions and rules of play. The "signals" of the "fall of the cards."

Already in the whist of Horle's time the elements of card reading were known to the masses of England. When Lord Folkestone and the select circle at the Crown Coffee house lifted the game of whist, in 1728 from the homes of the petite bourgeoisie and the servants' halls into the homes of kings and noblemen, the partnership language was polished up and became a system. This system, which was established by the common sense of the English race, was purified by their wonderful sense of sportsmanship which barred any undisclosed or private signals.

Finally the play of every one of the 26 cards held by the defenders in each deal was made an occasion for interesting and useful information to partner. Every card talks. Even when it is seemingly silent it may carry a stream of negative inferences.

With the prodigious development of contract bridge many of the old leads became archaic. Relatively little was done to standardize the leads in the last 20 years and chaos reigns. It has stood, with minor exceptions, the test of time. It represents the codification of the best practices of all master players and the result of more than 15 years of work by the writer.

It is applicable to all systems of bidding and to all classes of players from the veriest tyro to a super-expert.

These standard leads are called the Culbertson system of leads, but in a sense it is a misnomer, for my creative part in it is small when compared to the contributions of generations of players.

Next Wednesday, and every Wednesday thereafter, I shall explain the conventions and strategy of leads and give standard tables.
